

Local boy wins third at AKC event

Matthew C. Johnson, age 3, of Bristow, won third place at the AKC Responsible Dog Ownership Day held in Enid on Sept. 30, 2009.

Matthew entered a 4 month old sheltie pup owned by his grandparents in the PeeWee Junior Showmanship Conformation class. He was the youngest handler with the youngest dog.

Matt was representing the Oklahoma Pet Professionals, the state's pet breeder organization. He is the son of Terry and Jenna Johnson, grandson of Jack and Thea King, and great-grandson of Ethel Runt, all of Bristow.
